THE TEACHER'S LANTERN.

The refer educational influences upon Ispael was inestimable of being the Lord's minister of justice, his time of fire against this gross iniquity. The exceeding sinfulness of ein, the Divine abhoreone of it, its dire consequences—nothing else could have so decoly burned this into the hatlond' conscience. It was the strongest possible deterrent from the vices of the land into which israel cann.

An acted parable is this stirring seeme. Caraan is the human heart, naturally possessed of evil. Caleb is the soul, inspired, directed, alcol of God in the conquest of itself. Or, in the larger sphere, Canaan is the personification of the Church geling forth to conquest, and not content until the last stronghold falls.

Caleb is one of the ever-living medical

Caleb is one of the ever-living men of renown—a hero of faith, who subsided ingdoms, waxed valiant in fight, and tuffeet ty-flux the armies of the aliens. At eight cope with giant Anakim in their mountain fertresses. The secret of his pinnemenal in this short paragraph. He whelly full lowed the Lord God of Israel. Entire consecration makes a man valiant.

Criticism has made itself merry over-the supposed unhistoric manner in which the Book of Joshua gives prominence to the Hittite nation, a mere predatory urbe, so thoroughly Bedouin as to have faded from existence without leaving a sign. But this next on the stone pages of Bayn'ts history. Its luxury and wealth excited the dipidity of the Pharaohs, while its well-garrised fortress-cities baffled their invincible might, at least for a season.

The Danas seem most addicted to suicide. Their average is 266 self-murderers per 1,000,000 persons per year.
